From the Hillsboro' Recorder, Jan. 11.

MR. HEARTT'S VALEDICTORY—THE NESTOR OF THE PRESS.

With the present number of the Recorder our connection with it will cease. On taking leave, a short retrospect of the past may not be inappropriate. It now lacks but thirteen months of being half a century since the issue of our first number, during all which period we are not conscious of anything in our political career which needs to be repented of—except it be short comings. We commenced the publication in the midst of a perfect calm in politics. Mr. Monroe became President in 1817 with very little opposition, and was re-elected for the second term in 1820 by an unanimous vote. In such quiet times our ambition assumed no higher purpose than to give the current news of the day, and to fill up our columns with such other articles as we might find calculated to interest and amuse our readers, and perhaps inform and improve the mind. But in 1824 a warm contest was opened for the Presidency, Gen. Jackson, Wm. H. Crawford and John Q. Adams being candidates. Neither of these gentlemen obtained a majority of votes, and the election went to the House of Representatives, by which Mr. Adams was elected.—In that election we took a lively interest, because we thought the Whig policy better calculated to promote the best interests of the country, and advance the prosperity and happiness of the people. Mr. Adams was violently and bitterly assailed during the period of his Presidency, though we have thought his administration more pure and practical than any that has succeeded it.

During some of the following years the tariff was the most prominent subject of discussion, and created considerable discontent in the South, though it was felt with but a feather's weight by the people. The wisdom of the measure was shown in the rapid increase of home manufactures and the large reduction in price. As for instance the cotton fabric from Canton, which in 1819 was sold in our cities for fifty cents a yard, was in a few years replaced by a home production of a much superior article at the low price of eight and ten cents. A good article of sugar was retailed here at 8 to 10 cents per pound, and coffee at 10 to 12 cents, and other articles in proportion.—The advantages of the tariff were further shown, in that, without any apparent tax upon the people, the national debt was rapidly reduced during Mr. Adams' administration, and totally extinguished in the early part of that of Gen. Jackson.—Although in 1816, a tariff was advocated by Mr. Calhoun for the purpose of encouraging manufacturing establishments at home, and thereby opening a home market for cotton, an important Southern staple, he afterwards opposed it as unconstitutional, which opposition was urged with so much fierceness that it resulted in the nullification by South Carolina, which was so promptly put down by Gen. Jackson.

From the day when we first knew any thing of politics, we have been accustomed to look upon the perpetuity of the Union as a matter too sacred to be questioned. The sentiment uttered by Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, was adopted as a guiding sentiment by us on all political questions: "The unity of government which constitutes us one people is a main pillar in the edifice of our real independence, the support of our tranquility at home, and peace abroad, our safety, our prosperity, and of that liberty which we so highly prize—discountenancing whatever may suggest a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned."

It was under the influence of these sentiments that in 1827, when nullification and abolition movements were disturbing the country, and whisperings of dissension began to be uttered, that we held up the warning motto "UNITED WE STAND—DIVIDED WE FALL." And it was under the same influence that in 1844, when the impression began to prevail that Cotton was King, and ambitious men of the South began to be dazzled with visions of a Glorious Southern Confederacy, and Secession put on a more bold exterior, that we adopted a motto more explicitly expressing our governing principle—UNION, THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE LAWS—THE GUARDIANS OF OUR LIBERTIES."

Though admitting that the States are and of right ought to be sovereign and independent in the management of their internal affairs; yet as a nation we consider it essentially necessary that a general government should have paramount authority in all national affairs, in order to preserve tranquility at home and give it strength to command respect abroad.

Union has ever been our watch word. It was by Union that our liberties were obtained, it is by Union that they can be preserved. It was the United colonies that declared Independence in 1775; in Union the war of the revolution was fought and independence obtained. It was in Union that the articles of Confederation in 1778 were formed, in which it was twice repeated that the Union shall be perpetual; and it was "to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, secure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our prosperity," that the Constitution was framed in 1787. And under this Union, and by the blessings of a kind Providence, the nation acquired a degree of prosperity and happiness unprecedented in the annals of history.

Such has been the Union which all our life time we have been solicitous to preserve. And now, on retiring from our position as editor, may we not entertain a hope that the disasters, distress and ruin which have been spread over our country in the last eight years will be a salutary warning, and that the Union, the Constitution and the Laws—the "Guardians of our Liberties,"—will be the prevailing sentiment and a protecting ægis over our country for ages to come? With this prayer upon our heart, having not time or opportunity to say more, we bid our readers "good bye."

GOOD HAMS.—After hams have been smoked, take them down and thoroughly rub the flesh part with Molasses; then immediately apply ground or powdered pepper by sprinkling on as much as will stick to the molasses, when they must be hung up again to dry. Hams treated in this manner will keep perfectly sweet for two or three years. This must be done before the fly deposits its egg, for after that is done nothing will stop their ravages.—Carolina Farmer.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., ... Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. SYJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1869.

GOV. WORTH'S LETTER.

We pause in the publication of Governor Worth's letter, just as we are half through it. The other half, which we will publish next week, will be read with the same horror and astonishment, that such atrocities, should, for three long years, have been silently borne by a once proud, but now spirit-and-heart-broken people, who had the courage and virtue, but wanted the strength, to drive off these infamous monsters, who came, not to execute the law, but "the will of the nation," upon us!

It should be mentioned, as a sequel to that instalment of the Governor's letter, published by us on Friday, relative to Henderson Cooper, that when he was finally turned over by Canby to the civil authorities, to be tried under a new indictment, he would only have had to plead former conviction on the same charge, and have been released. But he was punished by Heaven, which would not allow so great a crime to go unavenged. He was burned up in jail, in Oxford, while endeavoring to burn his way out.

God save us hereafter, and henceforth have the spirit of the Constitution, and not the "will of the nation," executed upon us!

WHY THE INTEREST WAS NOT PAID.

The following, from the New York World, may explain "how the milk got into the cocoa-nut:"

Here's another ring, (says that paper) loll of course; they mostly are. There was some interest to pay on the first of this current month on a portion of the North Carolina State debt, some $300,000 or so. It wasn't paid. The reconstructed State Treasurer comes out in a letter to state the pain this sad affair gives him, and the bogus Governor supplements this wail with a sob of his own. But now, mark you, where the ring comes in. It would have been easy to borrow this money and meet the interest, but, being met, the State bonds would have held their own, or even, perhaps, gone up. It was desired they should go down; therefore no interest was paid, and they did go down. Being down, the ring buys heavily and then advertises to pay the interest. This plucks up drowned honor by the locks; bonds advance; the ring sells, and pockets a fortune at the expense of the credit of the State that for some inscrutable reason is, for the present, delivered over into its hands.

Senate and Sentinel Correspondence

SENATE CHAMBER, Raleigh, January 7, 1869.

Mr. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor Sentinel:

I observe, in your paper of the first of January, the following Editorial:

"The last news from Oxford is that Gen. Littlefield paid Mr. Robt. W. Lassiter, the Senator from Granville, $7,000,—at the rate of twenty dollars per acre, for land so poor that the very squirrels go about crying all the Fall, because of the scarcity of food.—A Granville man declared to us that he would not give fifty cents an acre for the land, and that if a kildee grazed upon it he would get so poor that Lassiter would have to let down the fence to drive him off the wheat, for he would not be able to fly! Now this much is of record."

The above is a false statement, for which, as the matter now stands, you are responsible. You say, however, that a Granville man is your informant. If such be the fact, I expect you to publish the information with the name of the author.

In justice to myself, I ask the insertion of this Card in your paper.

Yours Respectfully,
R. W. LASSITER.

SENTINEL OFFICE, Jan. 14, 1869.

Hon. R. W. Lassiter, Senator from Granville:

DEAR SIR:—Your correspondence continues to dazzle, delight, instruct, edify and entertain the public. Since you became a contributor to the Sentinel, there is more call and demand for it than there ever was before. It is very certain that you have never been aware of your own powers and the space which nature and the negroes intended you should occupy in this great Republic. If the negroes and mules had been enfranchised, when you and the Lieut. Governor first set out in politics, you would both have acted a very different part in life and have gone down characters in the history of your country. As it is, the present restricted enfranchisement of mules must be an obstacle in the way of the full measure of your glory. I should like to discuss with you, when you have exhausted the kildee subject, the "sacred right" of mules to vote. But you seem to have "kildees on the brain."

In my last, I asked your forbearance on that kildee subject, until Gen. Littlefield, that Prince of Editors, should return, but lo! you come with your last as full of interest, as full of wisdom, and as full of kildees, as your first.

Now let us hurry through this kildee subject, lest there be abatement in the interest which the public feel in our correspondence.

I will now prove to you the necessity of the State's owning Gen. Littlefield's kildees, and that, you being willing, shall terminate our correspondence on that subject, or, if you like, altogether. If, however, it delights you, as it does the public, to continue, then I will take the liberty of adding, by way of postscript to your letters, the last telegraphic news, or any thing to impart interest to them.

You know the Treasurer, Dave Jenkins and you know old Peter Brown's saying, that one half of this world are hawks and the other half pigeons. Well, Dave's a pigeon.

He sold $180,000 of eight per cent Railroad Bonds belonging to the State, and the best bonds in the world, for 65 cents on the dollar, instead of par. In this sale, the State lost $63,000. Let the Public Treasurer buy 20,000 kildees of Gen. Littlefield at 50 cts apiece, which is fifteen cents less than Littlefield and the Ring paid Dr. McKay an acre for the Penitentiary ground. Let the Treasurer then sell these 20,000 to Cebe Harris and the Penitentiary Committee, for twelve dollars and fifty cents each. This will bring into the State Treasury $250,000. Deduct $10,000, paid Littlefield for the kildees, and you have a nett profit to the State of $240,000. We put the kildees at $12,50 each, because that is the price that you, Cebe Harris, Downing and the Penitentiary Committee paid per acre for the 8,000 acres for the Penitentiary site, which had been bought at 65 cts. per acre. Dont be afraid, Senator, to make the purchase at $12,50. Before the Granville non-tax payers, who voted for you, you can justify the purchase of the kildees as easily as you can that of the land at the same price. To the tax-payers of Granville you can justify neither.

Don't purchase more than 20,000 kildees, for that's as many as can be grazed on the 8,000 acres, without too great an exhaustion of the soil. Kildees, you know, are mighty things to run about and tread over land.

What do you think of the Supreme Court, as now organized, punishing, for treason, the old Marshal of the Court, so dear to every man who knows him! Punishing him, too, before trial and conviction! Oh! Liberty, how many crimes are committed in thy name! Oh! "Loyalty," how many traitors are covered with thy cloak!

Yours in Loyalty,
JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

P. S.—Your brother Senator, the Right Hon. A. H. Galloway, colored, told me, yesterday, on the street, that he accepted the apology I made, through you, for comparing him to the Lieutenant Governor.

P. S. S.—I was also in error as to his weight. It is not 182½ or 183 lbs., as I stated, but 179, as I got it from his own Senatorial lips. Ask the Lieutenant Governor his weight and let me correct as to him, for I love to be accurate.

Yours in the cause, but not in the frauds, of the Penitentiary, J. T. JR.

Legislature of North-Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Jan. 15, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

PETITIONS.

A. H. Galloway, (colored,) presented a petition from certain citizens of New Hanover county in reference to the appointment of Inspectors. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Scott presented a petition from certain citizens of Duplin county, proposing an amendment to the report of the Commissioners of said county.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Martindale, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably on a bill to incorporate the Jamesville and Washington Railroad and Lumber Company.

Mr. Winstead, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to encourage guardians and wards to invest in the public stocks of the State, reported adversely, as no other legislation on this subject is necessary.

Mr. Welker, from the Special Committee appointed to investigate the purchase of the site for the Penitentiary, presented a report covering 17 pages of foolscap, with the deeds of said purchase.

On motion of Mr. Sweet, the report, with the accompanying documents, was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Lassiter asked if the parties had not agreed to reform the deeds and to make them with full covenant, as understood by the original Committee.

Mr. Welker said that many propositions had been made, coupled with conditions that the Committee could not accept, and were apparently made for the purpose of delaying the Committee.

Mr. Martindale asked of a proposition had not been made to the Committee to take back a portion of the purchase and return the $100,000 in bonds.

Mr. Welker said such a proposition had been made, but with such conditions that the Committee felt they had no authority to accept.

Mr. Davis asked if the Committee had not had a proposition submitted to them, in writing, by D. J. Pryne, wherein he agreed that a Committee might be appointed by the Senate, or any other body, to say what the present location of the Penitentiary is worth, together with the water power, and whatever they valued the site at, deduct from the $100,000, and he would pay in State bonds the remainder, and that he was now ready to deposit $50,000 in State bonds for the fulfillment of the contract?

Mr. Love said there was such a proposition made, but, when thoroughly investigated, it was coupled with conditions that the Committee could not consider.

Mr. Welker said he would state further, that the said D. J. Pryne had no right or title whatever to the tract of land intended for the site of the Penitentiary,—it having been conveyed to the State by the Deep River Company.

Mr. Lindsey said he had no doubt that propositions to take back the land and return the $100,000 in bonds to the State would be made, but it must be considered that we are dealing with shrewd business men, and they have other objects in view. They, by showing their willingness to take back the land, desire to create the impression that it is more valuable than it really is, thinking the agents acting for the State may desire to retain it, or that the impression may go abroad.

Mr. Robbins said that his position was well known in relation to this purchase. He was pleased with the report of the Committee, which shows conclusively that the charge he had made on a former occasion, that there was considerable deceit and wrong done, that the Committee had been deceived, was true. But he did not see the necessity of being very particular in regard to further developments. If the State could get back the $100,000 in bonds, which she has paid out, and if such a proposition was made, he should favor its acceptance, and that would settle the whole question, and the Legislature would have it in their power to proceed with the erecting of the Penitentiary in compliance with the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. Osborne said the Committee were convinced that there were other localities in that vicinity, which, in their judgment, would be more suitable for the erection of a Penitentiary than the site at Lockville, and if that is true, he, for one, would oppose the ratification of the purchase of the site at Lockville. If a proposition is made, and he understood there would be, he cancel both deeds and returns the $100,000 in bonds, he would favor it.

Mr. Welker said he would call the attention of the Senate to the fact that a provision in the deed required the Penitentiary to be built at that point, or the State will forfeit all claim to the purchase.

Mr. Love said that he had been at Deep River but a short time, when he was informed that the parties (Pryne & Co.) would take back the 8,000 acre tract and return to the State the $100,000 in bonds, provided, we would arbitrate, by competent engineers, the value of the Lockville site and pay to D. J. Pryne, out of the $100,000, the estimated value of the same. We refused to do this, because the site had been offered to the State gratuitously, and the estimated value of the property might reach $15,000 or $20,000. We were opposed to placing ourselves in such a position, that property, which cost the State nothing, could be made to cost this amount. He did not like to be personal, but thought this man Pryne has made enough; he has been acting as a go between. On the 9th of November, he (Pryne) bought of Heck & Co. the State's property on Deep River and Cape Fear River for $36,000, and on the same day, or the day after, sold it to C. L. Harris, for $100,000 in State bonds,—thus realizing $64,000; and when he made this contract with Harris, he (Pryne) had no title to the property, either legal or equitable, when members of the original Committee must have known that Heck & Co. were in the market offering this property for sale. We were willing to cancel both deeds upon the surrender of the $100,000 in bonds, and re-contract for the Lockville site, which propositon they did not accept. The site selected we consider ineligible. The surface of the ground is very irregular at the Northeastern corner, being at least seventy feet above the water in the river, (in the Lockville dam.) There it stands as though it were hung out to dry. There are other localities on the river, much more eligible, which can be procured at no cost to the State, which would be much better than paying Pryne & Co. $15,000 or $20,000 for a location totally unfit for the purpose.

Mr. Sweet introduced a resolution, continuing the Committee; which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Barrow, a message was sent to the House, inquiring what had become of the Resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to withhold the bonds to to complete the sale of the Penitentiary tract, and of the bill to repeal an act providing for the erection of a Penitentiary.

Mr. Sweet offered an amendment to the rules, making unfinished business first in order, after reading the journal. The rules were suspended and the motion was adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to create a Mechanics' and Laborers Lien Law was amended, and, after some discussion, passed its second reading.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Jan. 15, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the House.

Mr. Green presented the report of the Commissioners of Stanly county. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Proctor: A resolution (Senate concurring) that hereafter all bills to repeal acts shall be accompanied by the acts to be repealed. Lies over.

BILLS.

By Mr. Long, of Chatham: A bill to make indictable language likely to lead to a breach of the peace. Referred.

By Mr. Gibson: A bill to regulate and make uniform all applications for the establishment of new counties. Referred.

By Thos. A. Sykes, (colored,): A bill to authorize the appointment of Tax Collector for Pasquotank county. Referred.

By Jas. H. Harris, (colored,): A bill to grant a town lot in the city of Raleigh for the use of the education of children. Referred.

On motion Mr. Ingram, the rules were suspended, and the bill to prevent the sale of property exempted by the Constitution, known as the Homestead exemption, was taken up.

Mr. Ingram took the floor in advocacy of the bill. He said that the late Convention passed a homestead law, and went before the people promising them the full benefit of it. Now he was determined to hold them up to it. When the Supreme Court so decides upon the homestead law, passed by the Convention, then it would be time enough to talk about its unconstitutionality.

Mr. Hodnett said this matter had been fully debated in the Convention; as to the bill's constitutionality, it was determined to leave it an open question. He was opposed to bills of the nature of the one before them until a decision of the Court was rendered in regard to the homestead.

Mr. Sinclair said they had gone before their constituents declaring that they should have the benefits of that law, &c.

Mr. Pou was opposed to the bill from the fact that it would amount to nothing and afford the people no practical relief, &c.

Mr. Ingram again took the floor in support of his bill. He thought the Supreme Court would decide in favor of the constitutionality of the homestead, for the people demanded such a law, and their demands upon this matter would shape the decision of the Court, &c.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, offered the following substitute for the second section:

"That if any Sheriff, Constable or other officer, shall, under any pretence whatever, sell any property, real or personal, exempted by Art. 10 of the Constitution, such officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be imprisoned not more than twelve months or fined not more than one thousand dollars."

Mr. Stilley said that, though he desired the bill to pass, yet he could not vote for a bill, or a section of a bill, that he thought unconstitutional, and would be invalid after it was passed.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, moved to postpone the bill until to-morrow and make it the special order for ½ past 10 o'clock.—Carried.

Mr. Downing asked the indulgence of the House to make a proposition. He said that this Penitentiary affair had created so much debate, he would make this proposition, to-wit: That he would buy the site, water power, land, &c., with the same rights given to the State, and pay $100,000 in bonds at par therefor. He wished the matter acted upon shortly, as he had a proposition made to him to purchase the property in question, and, if his proposition was agreed to, he would make a nice little sum for himself.

A communication was read from the Superintendent of Public Works, accompanied by a communication from S. Adams, of Richmond, Va., making propositions in regard to the iron works to be established in the proposed Penitentiary, &c.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the documents were ordered to be printed.

J. S. Leary, (colored,) arose to a question of privilege. He saw, by the Journal of last session, he was reported as voting to lay on the table the resolution removing political disabilities. He voted against the motion.

On motion of Mr. Dixon, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the relief of F. M. Pittman was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Procter, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in regard to the introduction of bills to repeal acts already in force was taken up and adopted.

Mr. Downing here submitted his proposition in regard to the purchase of the Penitentiary land, in writing, and the proposition went over for further consideration.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the rules were suspended, and House bill No. 37 (a bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State, and by the several counties of the State, on property, polls and incomes,) was taken up.

The discussion upon the third section was resumed.

Mr. Estes said that, as there had been so much debate upon this section, he would offer a substitute that provided everything that could be asked.

The following is the substitute:

"The Commissioners of the several counties, at a meeting to be held before the first Monday in March, in the year 1869, and every year thereafter, shall appoint in each Township of their respective counties three assessors, (one of whom shall be a free holder;) they shall constitute a Board of Valuation for the Township, with a compensation of two dollars per diem while actually employed, and shall take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of their office according to law. Wherever a legal Board of Trustees shall exist in any Township, no such appointments as are herein provided for shall be made, and the duties herein prescribed for the assessor and his assistants shall be performed by said Board."

Mr. Durham said it did not provide for the holding of the Board of Valuation.

Mr. Estes replied that was provided in Section 17 of the bill.

This substitute elicited a long debate.

Mr. Estes moved that debate upon each section be limited to two minutes.

Mr. Durham protested against the adoption of the motion. He said this was a most important bill and required the most careful consideration.

The motion was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Pou moved to amend the substitute, by striking out, after the word "assessors," the words down to the word "they," and insert the words "qualified to serve as jurors, who."

Mr. Estes accepted the amendment.

Mr. Durham characterized this amendment as an attempt to impose upon land holders. It allowed men, who had no property and whose taxes were limited by the Constitution to a poll tax, to levy such a tax upon real estate as they chose. It was unfair and unjust to a large portion of our people. He warned gentlemen, who represented tax paying constituencies, against this amendment.

Mr. Estes said he objected to Mr. Pou's amendment, but, from his interpretation of the Constitution, he was compelled to accept it. He thought there should be a freeholder on the Board, &c.

Mr. Sinclair favored the amendment.

Mr. French said that while he was in favor of having a freeholder upon the Board, yet from his construction of the Constitution, he would vote for the amendment. He would shortly offer a resolution that it is the opinion that a freeholder should be appointed on said board.

Mr. Durham said it was strange that certain Republican members on this floor should so hug and whine over the Constitution, when they had publicly violated it twenty five times at least this session. Here was a measure making a most unjust discrimination against property holders, simply because they did not agree in politics with the majority of this Legislature. He was afraid that many members had very pliant consciences. They would bend them to suit nicely every political shape they desired. This amendment, according to their (Republicans) own construction of the Constitution, was a direct violation of that instrument, because if there was ever a barefaced peice of class legislation, this was a specimen of the first order.

Mr. Seymour argued at length in favor of the amendment.

The question recurred upon the substitute, as amended.

On its adoption the yeas and nays were, on motion of Mr. Durham, called and resulted in the following ballot, viz:

AYES—Messrs. Ashworth, Barnett, Barnes, Blair, Carey, colored, Cawthorn, colored, Cherry, colored, Dixon, Downing, Eilington, Estes, Forebee, Forkner, colored, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hendricks, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgings, Ingram, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, colored, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, colored, McCanless, Moring, Merrill, Morris, colored, Parker, Pearson, Pou, Price, colored, Proctor, Ragland, Rea, Renfrow, Robbins, colored, Robinson, Reygolds, colored, Seymour, Siegrist, Sinclair, Simonds, Snipes, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, colored, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Williamson, and Wiswall—63.

NAYS—Messrs. Allison, Argo, Armstrong, Banner, Boddie, Carson, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Foster, Gibson, Green, Grier, Hawkins, High, Hodnett, Humphries, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Matheson, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, Nicholson, Painter, Peck, Profitt, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Thompson, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—37.

The substitute was then adopted.

Section 3 was then put to vote and adopted.

Section 4, after undergoing a slight verbal amendment, was adopted.

In section 5, line 5, Mr. Estes moved to insert, after the word "Commissioners," the words "and it shall be their duty." Carried.

The section, as amended, was then adopted.

Sections 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, with slight amendment, were read and adopted.

In section 11, Mr. Clayton, of Transylvania, moved to strike out, in line 7, all after the word "that" and insert, in lieu thereof, the words "he is authorized to list the same." Carried.

On motion, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

A message was received from the Senate, making inquiry as to what had become of the Senate resolution forbidding the Treasurer to issue bonds for the purchase of a site for a Penitentiary, and, also, the bill repealing the resolution raising a Joint Committee in regard to the Penitentiary.

The Chair announced that both were on the Calendar.

Both bill and resolution were read, when Mr. Estes moved to adjourn, but withdrew it for a moment.

By consent, Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, offered a resolution, accepting Mr. Downing's proposition in regard to the Penitentiary. Lies over.

On motion, the House then adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

NOTE.—On the vote upon Mr. Estes's substitute, as amended by Mr. Pou, Messrs Purebee and Robinson gave as a reason for their vote, that they considered good moral character and intelligence, (the qualifications for jurors,) as vastly more important than the proprietorship of a few acres of poor land.

From the New York Journal of Commerce.

HOW THEY LAY IN GROCERIES AT WASHINGTON.

They manage things neatly at Washington. Suppose that the purchaser of supplies in one of the departments wants flour, sugar and such things for his private pantry, he does not necessarily buy and pay for them as common people do. No. He gives an order (say) for two dozen hair brushes, $24; and do. do. combs, $12—total $36.—These are supposed to be for slicking up the heads of secretaries, commissioners, chiefs of bureau, &c., so that after their arduous labors of the day, they may go forth into Pennsylvania avenue with their ambrosial locks (or wigs) arranged in the most rakish and captivating style. Oddly enough, the order goes to a grocer. The grocer not dealing largely in hair brushes and combs, (perhaps being actually short of those articles,) thinks it would be just as satisfactory to all concerned if he sent to the department one-half dozen brushes, $6, and do. do. combs, $3—total, $9, and ordered his porter to take to the private residence of the government purchaser the following nutritious substances: One barrel flour, $10; sugar, coffee, &c., $17—total, $27. A person skilled in addition will perceive that these items figure up $36, (same as two dozen brushes and combs would have done.) The government purchaser, having ordered in writing brushes and combs, as aforesaid, finds it much easier and pleasanter to certify that the two dozen of each had been received than to have the flour, sugar, &c., wagoned back to the grocer's, make corrections on the books, and incur no end of bother. This plan of laying in groceries is capable of indefinite application. Bureaus, sideboards, sofas, wardrobes, carpets, drop-lights and gas fixtures may all gradually swell the personal effects of these buyers, and be paid for as brushes, combs and what not. For such men to retire at the end of three or four years' service with $70,000 to $80,000 would not be remarkable. It is only a question of buying enough hair brushes and combs.

Another curious problem that they work out very prettily at Washington is how to get horses and carriages at government expense. Various solutions are offered; but the best is that invented by the commissioner of an important bureau. His department has official horses and carriages. These he sends round to his own stable—where they cost to take care of (say) $70 a week. This money is paid out of department funds. When a carriage is really wanted at his office, a hack is hired, and that goes into "contingent expenses."—Neat, isn't it? Well worth taking a patent for.

GEN. SIBLEY'S "SUPPLEMENTARY."

The following is published as a dispatch of Gen. Sibley, sent a few hours after his "report" to Gen. Meade, which we gave in our last issue. It will be seen that this "supplement," properly construed, takes the gloss from all the smartness of the report. It admits that the negroes would not submit to the civil authority; that if the Sheriff, with a posse of the people, were to go out to execute the laws, he would be resisted by the sable rioters; that only the forbearance practised by the officers of the law and the white citizens prevented "a fight." A military officer may make sport and ridicule of such a condition of things, but before Radical "reconstruction" it would have been thought a very serious matter to have to call in the Federal military authority to execute the laws of a State, on account of the danger of a "conflict" if the civil officers should attempt such a thing. As a sample of the "peace" promised us by Radicalism, such a beginning is very significent. Are we to understand that hereafter the State officers are not to be allowed to resort to force to put down negro rioters, but must always call in the military, and then be ridiculed for their timidity? Gen. Sibley's course seems to indicate as much, and negro law-breakers will be very apt to conclude so:

SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 4, 1869

Maj. Gen. George G. Meade, care Gen. Emory:

Fourteen of the men against whom warrants have been issued, and who live on the Ogeechee plantations, have voluntarily surrendered to the military authorities. Four more will be in during the day or night.—This is all of the original number of warrants that the Sheriff had to execute. I understand that one hundred and fifty or two hundred additional warrants have been taken out, but as the Sheriff has made no efforts to execute them, I do not feel justified, under present instructions, to aid him until he has made an effort to execute them. These warrants are for insurrection and inciting to insurrection. I would advise the use of the military, as I think it would be almost sure to result in a conflict if the Sheriff were to go out with a posse of the people. There is much excitement here, and many of the people would not be averse to a fight.

C. C. SIBLEY,
Bvt. Brig. Gen. U. S. A., Commanding, &c.

Surely, to sustain Grant, the extremes meet. Every Democrat voted in the House to give him a show, and the noble army of carpet-bag men went the same way. Thirty-five Democrats and twenty surreptitious members, taken from the vote of one hundred and twenty-one that carried through the House the repeal of the Tenure of Office act, leaves but sixty-six only, out of a Radical membership of one hundred and seventy-two on the roll, willing to give Grant a chance to see what he can do towards an honest and ecomonomical public service. But forty per cent. of the Radical members willing to trust their President elect! This looks alarmingly like what our English relatives call a vote of want of confidence, and seems to presage pretty much the same weary old suit of Congress vs. the President that has worried us already so much.—N. Y. World.

DEVICES OF THE GOOD.—There was present at the recent opening bal masque of the opera, in Paris, an American gentleman, who is opposed to going to balls on Saturday night. He is conscientious about this, and was much perplexed as to how he should consistently attend the ball in question. He was present and made the following explanation: "I have reflected that owing to the difference in time between here and New York—about six hours—I can leave here at about 5 in the morning and not infringe upon the Sabbath." That man ought to be a small contributor to the Treasury conscience fund.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past, the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING, but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three payments.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, took several to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an analyzed character of the alterative elements, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honest tradesmen by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around the Schnapps would have prevented the introduction of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by miscellaneous humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for fraud.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and so forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In connexion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and intimidate against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he casts upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland gin heretofore imobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

"Our Legislature" "our Penitentiary," "our Railroads" is the affectionate style now used by the Standard. This is no joke, for if the Railroads, Legislature and other State institutions don't belong to Holden, Littlefield & Co., they soon will. This, from the Greensboro' Times, is pat and good.

The following additional discharges in bankruptcy are announced:

PASQUOTANK.—Geo. Fox, John Stanton, Timothy Hunter, Alman Spencer.
CURRITUCK.—D. McD. Lindsey, M. S. Perebee, E. D Perebee.
CAMDEN.—Dorsey Sanderlin, Noah McPherson.
BERTIE.—L. P. Bush, J. C. Freeman.
CUMBERLAND.—W. S. Ganey, John Ganey, Elias Ganey, Holly Ganey.
WASHINGTON.—W. F. Sanderlin.
PERQUIMANS.—A. R. Elliott.
HERTFORD.—James A. Worrell.
GATES.—Edmund J. Parker.

Wm. A. Moore, Rad., has been elected Representative from Chowan, vice Richard Clayton, Rad., resigned.

"Judge" Watts announces, through the Standard, that "stationery" (he spells it stationary,) and "postage" (he means stamps) have "not yet been provided for the Judges," and that correspondents will please remit stamps for return papers. We were not aware that these things have heretofore been furnished Judges. The Judge's hint, however, ought to bring the stamps.

A negro in Salisbury, on Saturday night, shot his wife in the heel. Unlike Achilles, that is the least vulnerable part with a darkey.

The first shad of the season were caught below Wilmington on the 13th.

French, of New Hampshire, via the First Congressional District of North Carolina, was one of the 47 in the House of Representatives who voted against the repeal of the Tenure of Office Act

In the announcement of President Johnson's appointment of Calvin J Cowles to be Assayer of the Charlotte Mint, as published in the New York papers, the name is rendered Charles J. Cooles. Such, Daddy K., is fame.

Gaimbres, a negro from the North, has been elected reading Clerk of the Florida State Senate.

The Tribune says the American Government is "a Government that owes Two Billions and a half, and is in a state of virtual, chronic insolvency."

A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, alluding to the effort of Hon. A. H. H. Stuart and others, says: "It is noteworthy that some of the Western Democrats, and those in Congress from the border States, look on the Virginia movement with despair, and regard it as a mistake, affirming that the West is opposed to negro suffrage."

A Georgia correspondent says that in the next month's contest for Congressmen, (if the State is not put out of the Union again,) they will elect only white men. The negroes themselves refuse to be set up as targets to be shot at in Washington by their own party, and are going to try the effect of electing white Conservatives. Carpet-baggers are nowhere.

The Pope is out upon the subject of the education of girls. He addresses a brief letter to the Bishop of Montpelier, in which he speaks of "the vice of an institution which is preparing for society not good mothers of families, but women puffed up with a vain and empty science," and which he deplores as "an evil so great, that it menaces at the same time religion, the family and the country."

The population of Memphis Tenn., was estimated at 61,000 three years ago. A late census returns but 39,000. The decrease is attributed to the terrible condition of Tennessee under Brownlow and the negro rule.

The New York Herald gives the following advice to people who want to be elected United States Senators from that State: "Go to Albany, and take a trunk with you, full of greenbacks.—This is the surest way to do it; and there is no time to be lost."

Subjects for an artist: Butler affectionately shaking hands with "a party by the name of Johnson," and Daddy Kowles accepting an appointment at the hands of the same "party."

The New York World's Washington correspondent, speaking of Mr. Acting Vice President Wade's appointment of Rice, "of Arkansas," and Abbott, "of North Carolina," as the additional members of the Senate Committee on the Pacific Railroad, says:

"It is not incorrect to state that these appointments precisely please what is known here as the Railroad ring, and very much displease those members of the Senate who desire to assist General Grant's resolution to grant no more subsidies to overland roads, and to hold those under contract for subsidies to a more rigid account."

A CAPITAL HOUSE.—We breakfasted, by invitation, on yesterday, at the Boarding House of Geo. T. Cooke, Esq., where, in company with friends, we enjoyed a most excellent meal. Mr. Cooke's House is admirably kept, in all its departments, and is a good place for the "wayfaring man," or any other man, to put up at. We only fear, he feeds so well, that the members of the Legislature, who sojourn with him, will be slow to vote for an adjournment.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach in Christ Church, in this City, to-morrow morning, and administer the Rite of Confirmation.

MR. BEASLEY, now of Kentucky, formerly of this State, of whom we spoke, on yesterday, as engaged in the manufacture of sugar from sorgham, is at present in this City. He will exhibit his specimens.

THE St. Augustine Normal School, located near the city, on the Seawell place, will be dedicated to-day, (Saturday,) at 3½ o'clock, P. M. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson will officiate. No doubt, the occasion will be an interesting one. The public are invited, and we hope many may be able to attend.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY!

$50,000 REWARD!!!

The Editor of the Sentinel will pay FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS for the personal appearance of Gen. Littlefield, Editor of the Standard,—said Editor to be delivered to Senator Sweet, as a witness to go before the Legislative Committee, to testify as to the alleged bribery of certain members of the General Assembly, who, Senator Sweet, on the floor of the Senate, has already declared, received dollars and cents for their votes!

The Editor left this city soon after the purchase of 8,000 acres of land at $100,000, for a Penitentiary location—the land having been purchased, by the Ring, at 65 cents per acre, and sold by the Ring, a few days thereafter, at $12 50 per acre, for a Penitentiary site, or for Penitentiary culture.

Said Editor is supposed to be interested in the Rings.

WHEN HE LEFT.

HIS DRESS.

He had on shirt, shoes and hat. His shoes just the color of one hundred members of the South Carolina Legislature and fifteen members of the North Carolina Legislature.

HIS PERSON.

About 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, in his stocking feet or bare footed; round shouldered, head heavily hung; athletic in configuration, much after the model of Cuffee Mayo, negro colleague of Senator Lassiter, who stole the pistol, (pistol in this advertisement referring to Cuffee.)

WEIGHT.

About 20 lbs. more than that of Galloway, and his weight is 179 lbs., as we have learned, as elsewhere stated, from his own Senatorial lips.

HIS INTELLECT.

Not equal to Brodie (colored) in scholarly attainments, nor to Galloway in the charms of eloquence and graces of oratory, but superior to Friday Jones and Solomon Bragg in both. Nevertheless, not so poor of intellect as not to be able to prompt and aid Gen. Laflin, as State Proxy in the late Railroad meeting.

He is said to have paid $1,000 for the negro barbecue, here, last fall, and to have subscribed liberally to the negro celebration in July last, when Judge Reade and Governor Holden, as orators, put the negro on the grin, from a party platform, erected by the Republican Club, in the Capitol Square, and paid for by the Public Treasure, on the Governor's own warrant,—it being the same public square that the Governor subsequently refused to allow the ladies to assemble in, for a flag presentation. He is supposed to have given notice in Wall Street that the interest on State Bonds would not be paid, and, upon the depreciation, to have bought. Upon Governor Holden's telegraphing, soon after, to New York, that the interest would be paid, then he is supposed to have sold. When the Governor and Treasurer must have known that any two Presidents of our Railroads could have borrowed the little amount wanted, on the 1st. of January, to pay the interest on State bonds!

We said publicly, in December last, that the January interest would not be paid, when due, but would be paid in three weeks after that time, and that the Editor of the Standard would make money by the operation. It was a shame that the Governor and Public Treasurer should have soiled the honor of the State, in the absence of the Legislature, when any two Railroad Presidents could have borrowed money sufficient to have paid the interest and thereby have saved the credit of the State.

This Editor, who, Senator Sweet says, he can't "reach," has abusive editorials of us, blackguarding and scandalizing us,—editorials said to be written by certain Judges and members of the Code.

All honest Editors of the State are requested to publish this advertisement for six weeks, and forward their bill to this office.

Brick Pomeroy, the New York World and Express, Boston Post, New York Journal of Commerce, Chicago Times, Philadelphia Age and Baltimore Gazette are also requested to publish for six weeks and forward their bills—the charge for advertising, as well as the reward hereby offered, to be paid in Confederate money, new issue!

NEW COUNTY.—We learn that there will soon be a bill introduced in the Legislature, to make a new county out of portions of Orange and Chatham. Petitions are in circulation for that purpose.

The new county will take from Orange the Bingham and Patterson neighborhoods. The line will pass at or near New Hope Bridge, between Chapel Hill and Hillsboro.

The project is said to have originated in Raleigh, and not with the people. Send down your petitions pro and con.

THE proceedings in both Houses on the Penitentiary swindle, on yesterday, shall have our attention in due time. The elaborate and searching report of the Committee shall be published, as soon as we receive a copy.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The Rev. G. Nash Morton, late from Brazil, will preach in the Presbyterian Church, on Sabbath morning, at the usual hour, and, by invitation of the "Young Men's Christian Association," will deliver an address at night, in the same place, giving an account of the religious condition of the Brazilians, and other facts of interest. After this service, a collection will be taken up, and the proceeds given for the benefit of the poor of Raleigh.

The Association paid $360 for wood and provisions for this class of persons in our community last month, and, unless they can get additional help, the Association cannot meet the necessities of the poor, and they must suffer. We hope the citizens will manifest their usual liberality in their contributions to this object.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

THE UNIVERSITY—FROM A NORTH CAROLINIAN IN NEW ENGLAND.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL,
CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY, Jan. 11, '69.

Mr. Editor:—Being a subscriber to your weekly edition of the Sentinel, I will not apologize for addressing you this note, for I wish to let you know how much pleasure I derive from reading the Sentinel. I am not, I suppose, much of a judge in such matters, but it seems to me you have been very happy in filling your columns with matter most interesting to one now away from the State and about every topic of interest you have touched upon.

I was especially gratified with your several articles on "The University," and I take deep interest in the measures that are being instituted for its revival. I infer, from your articles, that certain persons have been appointed Professors in that institution and assigned to the chairs respectively of Latin, Greek, Mathematics and Belle Lettres. It may be excusable in one, who has had the good fortune to graduate at Chapel Hill, if he regrets to find that his old and valued Instructors have been replaced by persons whom he has not the honor of knowing, and that the youth of North Carolina and of other States, who will resort to Chapel Hill, are to be deprived of the experience and extensive learning possessed by those members of the Old Faculty of the University who have survived the vicissitudes of time and the casualties of life.

There were not many of them left and they had served the State long and faithfully. Governor Holden and the Trustees of the University might, with singular propriety and without detriment to their party, have retained them in office as an appropriate recognition, on the part of the State, of their long and tried services.

Since I have been at this institution, I have instituted, on all occasions, comparisons between it and Chapel Hill, and, as the result of my observations, I can say, in all sincerity, that were it possible for me to go over my College career again, and the alternative were given me to graduate at Harvard University or the University of N. C., I should select the latter institution.

When Dr. Phillips filled the chair of Mixed Mathematics, and his son, Dr. Chas. Phillips, that of Pure Mathematics, Prof. Petter, that of Greek Language and Literature, and Dr. Hubbard the Latin department, Prof. Smith, Professor of Modern Languages, with Profs Kimberly in the department of Agricultural Chemistry, Hepburn in that of Metaphysics, Logic and Rhetoric, and Martin, Professor of Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology, I venture to say there was not a better officered literary institution in the United States; and yet I remember well the feeling manifested in many sections of the State that it would be well and desirable to have some of those gentlemen replaced by others, whose loyalty to the lost cause had been more conspicuously displayed during the war.

Writing those familiar names carries me irresistibly back in memory to those days, when the University of N. C. was in the zenith of her glory and a just source of pride to every North Carolinian.

But even then the excellence of their institution was not fully appreciated by the people of N. C. and the annual catalogue showed usually that half the students present were from other States. When I think of how much was accomplished by that great and good man, now dead, David L. Swain, and how often his great heart must have been lacerated by the injustice done him by his fellow citizens in the aspersions cast upon his good name as a Southern man, by thoughtless and wicked people, I cannot but think every exertion should and will be made properly to perpetuate an Institution to which he devoted most of his life and which was the dearest object of his heart, in order that such exertions as he made in behalf of the State, and in a literary and scientific point of view, may not have been made in vain. B.

For the Sentinel.

RANDOLPH.

MR. EDITOR:—Please to publish a few remarks from a wanderer in and through the Cotton Manufacturing portion of old Randolph, as there has been much said in regard to the various routes of the Railroad from Egypt to Greensboro'. I think there are ample reasons why the Road should run through this manufacturing region.—There are in the space of twelve miles, on Deep River, five Cotton Manufacturing establishments, which, with their present facilities, consume an average of ten ordinary sized bales of cotton per day, which would be quite an item in the way of freight, besides the manufactured goods they send off, which would be considerable. And then the dry goods they bring in, (for each Factory has a store,) would exceed the dry goods business on any other line the Road could be run through this county.—There are also some good flouring mills on this line; also one forge, for the manufacture of iron, with an inexhaustible mountain of iron ore. Deep River furnishes a never failing quantity of water and some unimproved sites, which, no doubt, would be improved, if we had the facilities of a Railroad. There have been thousands of dollars spent at these cotton mills for teaming under the torpid state of business caused by their having no facilities or immediate connexion with the markets of the world. Give them these facilities and their business would be increased and the country and laboring classes benefitted.

Besides, the owners of these manufacturing establishments would subscribe largely if the Road could be built on this line.—There is no doubt but what the manufacturing men alone would subscribe more to this line than could be obtained on either of the other lines through this county, for, as this county is not rich, nor to be boasted of in the way of farming, it is not expected that the farmers can do much for the Road. Reason would suggest, then, that the Road should be located on the middle line of Deep River, where it would secure the subscription of these manufacturing establishments and furnish the greatest amount of business to the Road.

Mr. Parks, who is Agent of the Randolph Manufacturing Company, located at Franklinsville, showed me some of his yarns and sheetings, which seem to be equal to any I have examined in the State. He has made some improvement on his machinery in the last twelve months. I think his goods exceed any I have seen in the county. By the by, Mr. Parks is a thorough going business man and quite a gentleman. I would say to any that should happen to pass through this county, that like the company and conversation of such men, to call on him and they will have no cause to say that I have misrepresented him.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

CONGRESS,

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, M.

Senate.—Stuart, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably on the resolution for a proposed Constitutional amendment. It provides for the right of all citizens to vote and to hold office. This shall not be abridged on account of race or color. Congress is empowered to enforce the above.

The House is considering private Bills.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

After many conferences between the Virginia Committee and its individual members, with the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and members of the Senate and House, it seems pretty well understood that the following definite arrangement has been substantially agreed to:—Following the precedents in the Missouri compromise and the proceedings upon the admission of Oregon, Kansas and Nebraska, a Bill will be prepared, authorizing the admission of Virginia upon the adoption of the proposed Constitution, with certain obnoxious clauses, with regard to disfranchisement, the test-oath and, probably, other objectionable features, stricken out.

When this bill is passed, it is believed that it will be followed by an Amnesty Bill, either universal or with very few exceptions, to take effect upon the ratification of the Constitution.

It is understood that this adjustment meets the approbation of Gen. Grant, Gen. Schofield and a large number of the most prominent members of both Houses.

Gen. Gillem has concluded his testimony. He attributed the defeat of the Constitution to its proscriptive features. The white people were nearly all opposed to it, and many negroes whose generosity was appealed to voted against it. Gen. Gillem thinks, that if the Constitution was resubmitted, with the understanding that proscription should be governed by the Reconstruction laws, the Constitution would be adopted, by a large majority.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

SENATE.—The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the joint resolution making the President and Vice President ineligible for a second term.

After other unimportant business, the Sue Murphy case was resumed, and, after a long argument, the whole matter, with various propositions and amendments, was recommitted without discussion. The Senate adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The Election Committee reported on the 6th Georgia District substantially as heretofore stated, namely: Wimpey not elected, Christy elected but not entitled to a seat, having voluntarily aided the enemy. A number of private bills were reported.

The Niagra Ship Canal, appropriating twelve millions in aid of the enterprize was resumed.—Among the noticeable features of the discussion, Gen. Sypher, of Louisiana, in opposition, said that grain was now being shipped from St. Louis to New York via New Orleans, at seventeen cents per bushel less than via Chicago and Buffalo, and to Liverpool at twenty cents less per bushel via New Orleans than via New York and in one-third less time.

The transportation via New Orleans, is made with perfect safety to this commodity, and at a cost of about one cent per bushel, for transferring it at New Orleans, by means of Higby's Elevators. Besides the Niagra Ship Canal would be frozen four months of the year, whereas the Mississippi was constantly navigable. The bill was finally referred to a Committee of the Whole which is tantamount to its defeat—this session.

The House then adjourned to Monday.

THE ANGELS' SONG.

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold.
"Peace to the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man at war with man hears not
The love song which they bring;
Oh! hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!

And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow;
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh! rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!

For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth,
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

THE WEALTH OF ROTHSCHILD.—We believe that it was John Jacob Aster who said that "the only difficulty in accumulating a fortune was to get the first million, and after that money multiplied itself."—The genius which some few men have for turning everything which they touch to gold is something amazing, and when we read of such fortunes as that left by the late Baron James de Rothschild, the old story of Midas begins to lose its fabulous aspect. De Quincey once discoursed about "murder as a fine art," and an even more interesting essay might be written with the title, "money-getting as a science." The Rothschilds have endeavored not only to increase their wealth, but to retain it solely in their own family, and the united fortunes of those who bear the name would amount to a sum that would almost stagger belief.

The late Baron James de Rothschild bequeated to his wife Betty $40 000,000, the Chateau Ferriere, which contains an art collection valued at more than $4,000,000, and also his magnificent house in the Rue Lafitte at Paris. His eldest son Adolphus, succeeds to the largest share of the estate, and his portion is estimated at something like $100,000,000. The second son, Gustavus gets $40,000,000; and the third son, Edmund, $30,000,000. To his grandson, the son of the late Solomon Rothschild, the Baron bequeathed the comparatively insignificant amount of $10,000,000. There were a number of other legacies, but these alone amount to $224,000,000. It is hardly possible to form an estimate of such a sum of money as this, and the question naturally suggests itself, What good did it do the possessor? Beyond a certain amount, wealth can do nothing towards procuring the means of enjoyment in life, and the care of such an immense fortune must entail labors that few men would be able to bear.—The late Baron Rothschild had the reputation of being charitable to the poor of his neighborhood; and when we consider the depths of poverty that exist in Europe, and the amount of human suffering that the possessor of such an amount of wealth had it in his power to alleviate, it is to be hoped, for the credit of his memory, that his charities were as extensive as they should be in proportion to his abilities.—*Phila. NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their unbiasable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
